

Father I will have to thank you for bringing me into this world. I will have <sup>to</sup> thank you again and again. You were there beside mum when I was born. You played your responsibility by toiling every ~~day~~ day and night and became the bread winner of the family.

You took ~~to~~ me to local school, you provided medication for me. I will live to appreciate that. You never gave up even though there were so many challenges at that time. You are my role model daddy that I should never give up in life. I should try whatever I could to achieve success in my life. I believe I shall be successful no matter how many mountains and hills a climb in life.

You took good care of me after mother had left. You played both role as a father and as a mother. You never ~~Shield off~~ <sup>Shield off</sup> to carry me in public and announced that you are a mother to me. You put me together and I was happy again. Life was the same again by giving me too much love. I can forget any love I have ever been given by friends and relatives but never shall I ever forget your love daddy.

Life is not a forever thing on earth, you came to leave me by my own. What a fate!!! Sometimes world is unfair to some people, why did it took away my father away from me!!! Why!!! why!!! I was left alone blind folded not knowing <sup>where</sup> to go. I cried everyday but my tears could not bring back my lovely parents. I had to gather myself together and believed that I shall see light again.

I jumped into a lorry that was taking people to Kakuma. I never knew that was the gate to see the bright light again. Arok came and let me joined the 'Goss' in 2009. I am still learning as I am writing this letter. The 'Goss' became my second father and provided me education and medical care. Sometimes in life you think of giving up but my father's actions will never allow me to. I shall never give up in life.
