

Alex
Garang

My role model is John Garang the one who died in a plane crash in 2005 due to his great patriotism and love for his people. He searched for peace and justice where there was none in existence. He fought for people's rights and tried to instill good morals into people's minds.

He really cared and loved the well being of ^{his} people.

Fathers day is an important reminder that we need to tell our dads just how much we appreciate and love them.

A good father is someone who ;

Appreciates his child and raises his self esteem.

Who sets a good example to his family

One who is inspirational

One who has patience to listen

Spending time with him ~~is~~ fun with kids

Provides necessities for life.

Acts as the wall of trust and security.

Respects the mother of his children.

He is the best teacher.

You always made me feel safe and secure.
