

FATHER'S DAY

My role model is chief justice David Marang'a. He fought for the right of the people for several years. He knows how he can handle his children.

A good father has the following characteristics:

- Loving his children and making them happy.
- Respecting everyone in the society
- Being helpful.

I chose David Marang'a to be my role model for he has the characteristics of a good father. Besides he loves peace among the people including himself.

He never tolerates corruption in the country, for example: He made everyone including the refugee to be equal before the law.

He likes helping the needy a lot: examples:

- Orphans

The aged

The handicapped.

For sure I like him for the characteristics of a good father. A father's day is a day that is supposed to be celebrated by everyone to remember our fathers countrywide.

For sure fathers are very useful people in the society and we should continue to celebrate the father's day every year by everyone.
